OTHER PRIVACY ISSUES...

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

WHO OWNS THE RIGHTS?

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OR COPYRIGHT QUESTIONS FREQUENTLY PUZZLE MARKETERS AND ADVERTISERS.

MA members ask me questions like...

• We want to use a piece of music in an ad, at a promotion or conference- can we?

Yes...apply to Music NZ for a music license!

WHO OWNS THE RIGHTS?

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OR COPYRIGHT QUESTIONS FREQUENTLY PUZZLE MARKETERS AND ADVERTISERS.

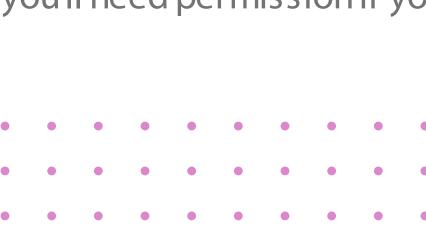

MA members ask me questions like...

• We want to use a piece of music in an ad, at a promotion or conference- can we?

Yes...apply to Music NZ for a music license!

• We want to use a crowd shot in our latest advertising- is this allowed?

Yes... But you'll need permission if you use an individual!

WHAT IS INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY?

Marketing Association

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY REFERS TO NEW OR ORIGINAL INNOVATIONS AND CREATIONS OF THE MIND, SUCH AS:

- Literary or artistic works
- Films, music, images
- Performances or performing arts
- Inventions
- Industrial designs or brand and product logos

* YOU NEED PERMISSION!*

IF THAT'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY... THEN WHAT'S COPYRIGHT?

- Copyright refers to the exclusive rights given to owners of original works such as literature, artistic works, films, and sound recordings.
- In New Zealand, copyright is an automatic right that takes effect as soon as an original work is created, published, or performed.

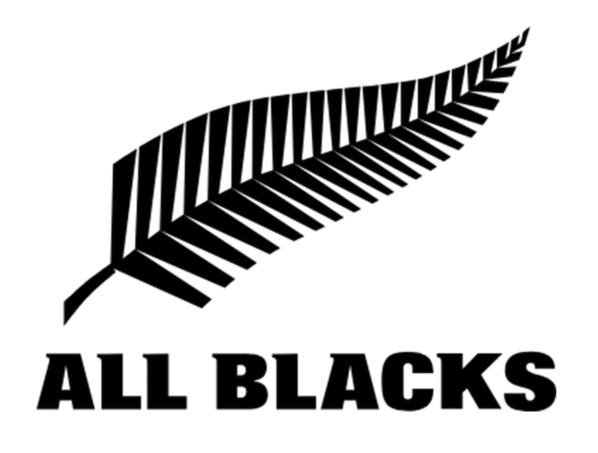

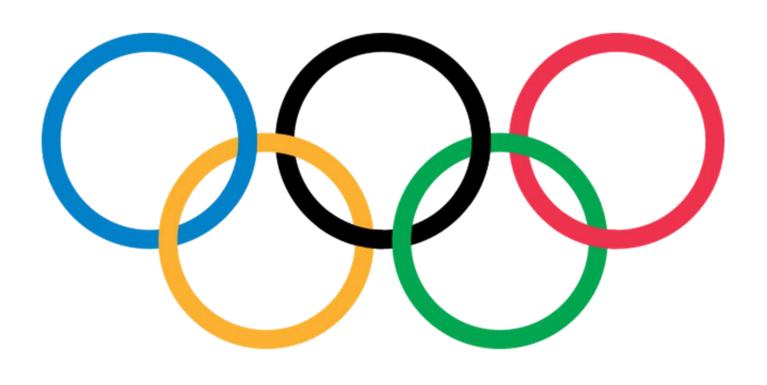

BRAND LOGOS

- Logos are not necessarily copyrighted, they are trademarked. In NZ the trademark lasts 10 years.
- An organisation in NZ usually still has legal rights to their logo even if it's not trademarked.

MARKETING LEGISLATION

LET'S HAVE A QUICK LOOK AT SOME OTHER LAWS WHICH AFFECT MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS:

- Charities Act 2005
- Commerce Act (1986)
- Fair Trading Act (1986)
- Consumer Guarantees Act (1993)
- Gambling Act (2003)

CHARITIES ACT 2005

(UPDATED 2023)

Defines Charitable purposes:

Relieving poverty, Advancing education, Advancing religion, and Other purposes beneficial to the community.

The benefits of a charity cannot be for the private profit of individuals

Requires registration of:

Societies, institutions, and trustees of trusts as charitable entities. Registration is voluntary but offers tax exemptions under the Income Tax Act 2007

Obligations of Registered Charities: Registered charities must submit annual returns to Charities Services

CHARITIES AMENDMENT ACT 2023

Now need a three-year governance review

Update your charity's officers regarding their role and duties

'Officers' must be 18+, cannot be bankrupt or have served prison sentence or disqualified as trustees and are listed on the register

Your fundraisers must provide your charity's registration number upon request

Small tier 4 charities have easier reporting standards

FAIR TRADING ACT (1986)

- Prohibits misleading or deceptive advertising
- Outlaws unfair trade practices
- Claims made on packaging or advertising must be 'sustainable' you must have clear, authentic evidence to support claims
- Doesn't cover private purchases (e.g., TradeMe)

CAN YOU PROVE IT? VIDEO BY COMMERCE COMMISSION

FUNDRAISING PROMOTIONS

- Does your promotion have a cost to enter (might be a donation) with a random chance of winning a prize?
- Then it's covered by the Gambling Act, which also sets rules for electronic promotions and raffles.

SALES PROMOTIONS CAN BE CLASSED AS GAMBLING

It's gambling if:

- You pay to directly or indirectly enter... AND
- There's an element of chance... AND
- There are prizes.

It's NOT gambling if:

- Activity is entirely skill-based... OR
- It's free to enter... OR
- There are no prizes

FUNDRAISING BY RAFFLE OR LOTTERY

Must comply with Gambling Act 2003

Class 1:

Limit of $500 on total turnover and on the total value of the prizes. A society may not conduct more than one session per day. No licence required.

Class 2:

Total gambling turnover per session up to $25,000 and the total value of prizes per session up to $5,000. No licence required

Class 3:

Total value of prizes for a session is more than $5,000. Class 3 gambling requires a licence

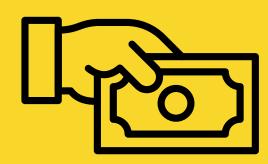

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN YOU ARE RUNNING A RAFFLE

- Let everyone participating know the rules and requirements
- Make it clear when and where the draw will take place
- Ensure all tickets are individually numbered to identify and contact the winner
- Don't sell tickets online unless you are a society and have a Class
 3 licence

If your raffle has prizes valued above $500 only a society can run it and report to DIA with audit and prize statement

LET'S RUN A LOTTERY

Purchase a ticket to support a charity

Go in a draw to win a holiday.

Winner gets a week in Hawaii.

Next 20 tickets drawn win a magnum of Moet champagne.

LET'S RUN A LOTTERY

YES... It IS gambling!

You pay to directly or indirectly enter... AND

Gambling

There's an element of chance... AND

There are prizes.

PROHIBITED PRIZES

For promotions which fall under the Gambling Act

- Firearms, explosives
- Liquor
- Tobacco
- Māori Artifacts
- Sexual Services

OR

Vouchers for the above!

SALE AND SUPPLY OF ALCOHOL DEC 2013

Clause 237- Irresponsible Promotion of Alcoho

It is an offence to promote or advertise free alcohol as a prize or reward other than for sampling or promotion in licensed premises.

POP QUIZ!

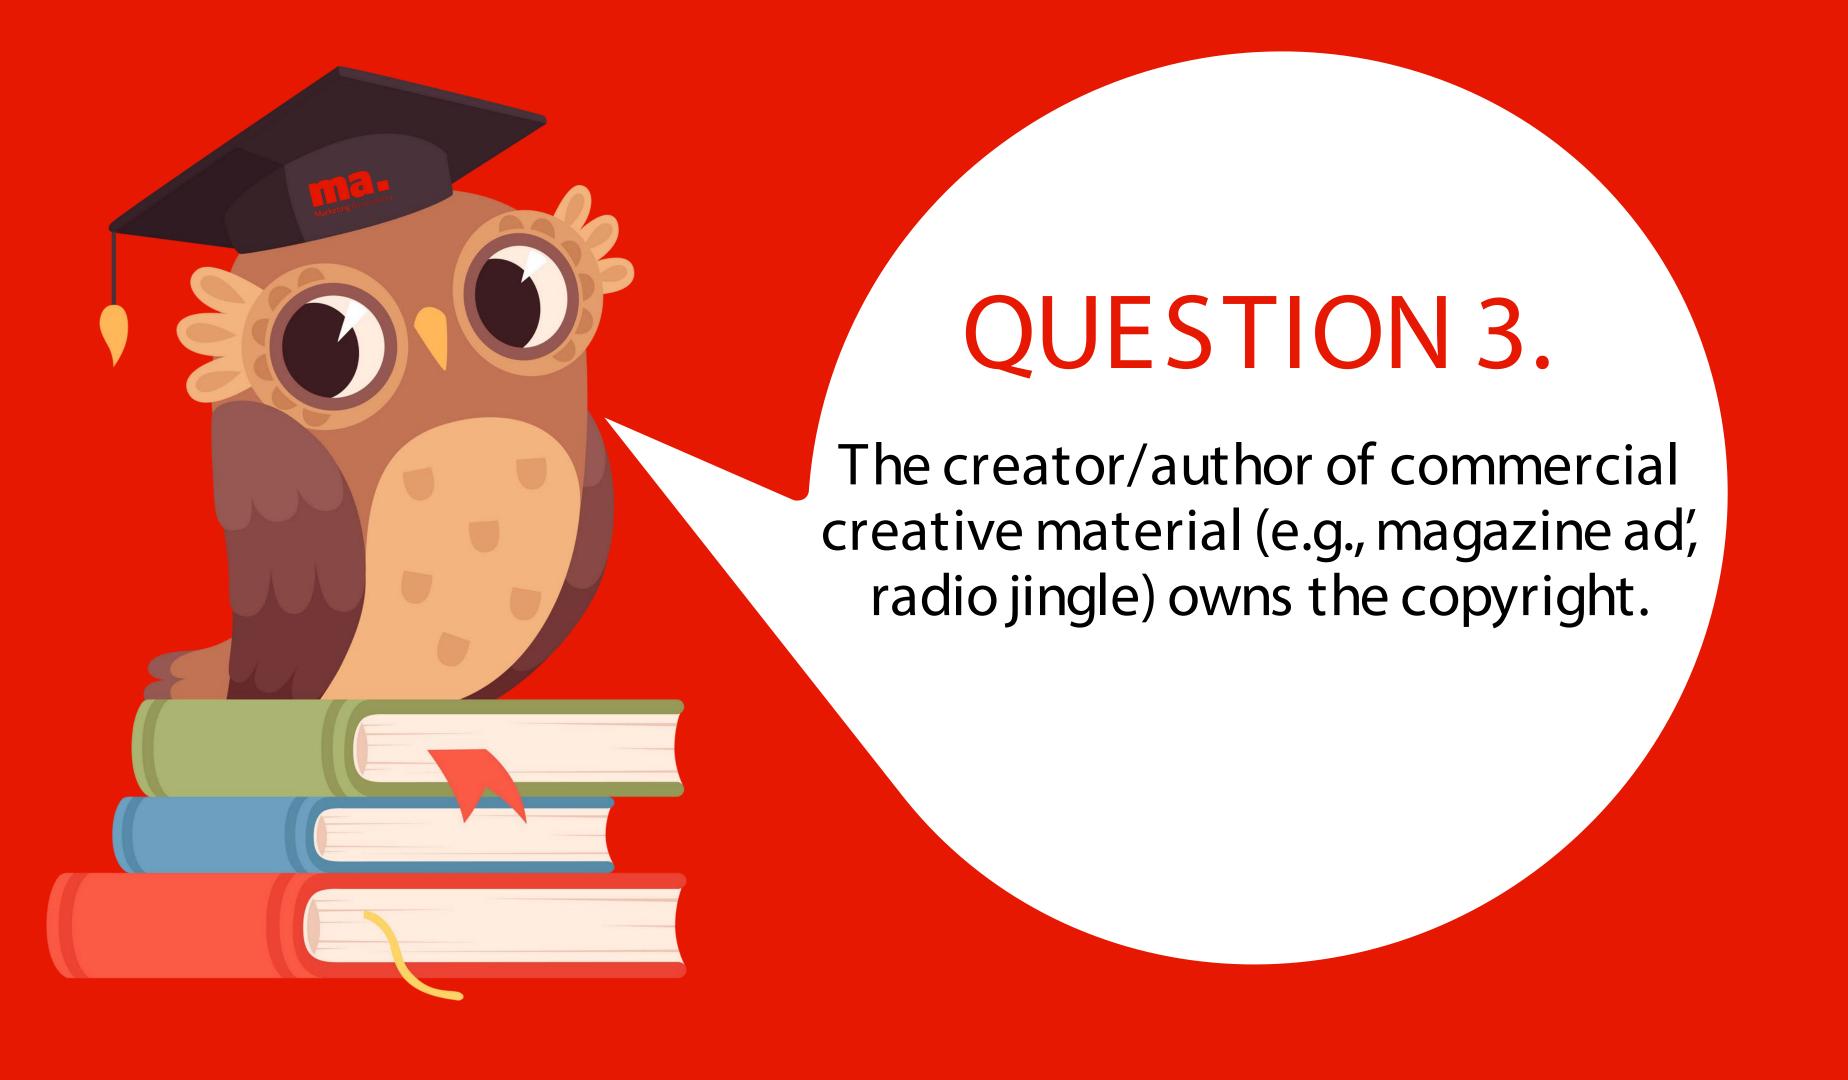

Make sure any claim you make about your charity has been previously verified by credible source.

TRUE

But remember that if it comes under the Gambling Act the only competition you can run on the Internet is a lottery and prohibited prizes include alcohol, firearms, and sex!

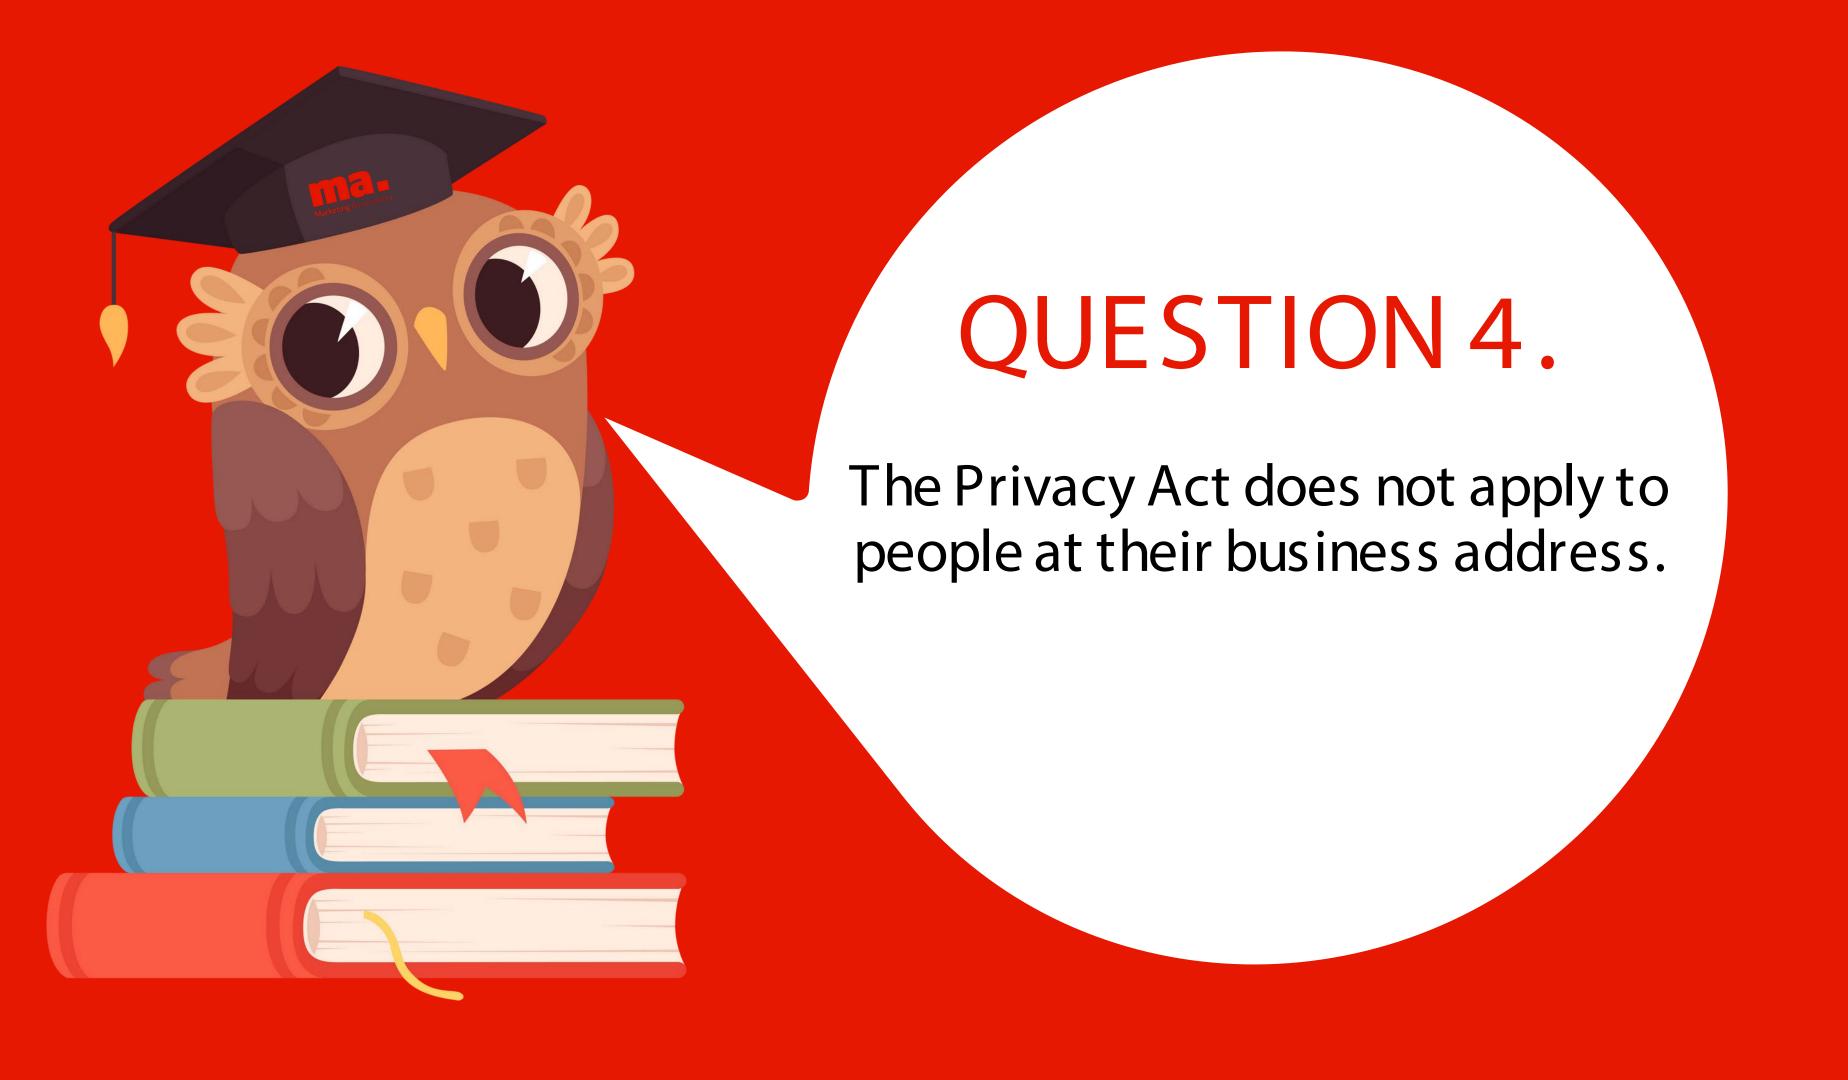

Generally, the author of a work is the first owner of copyright. However, that may not be so when an employee or paid contractor creates an original work

Sometimes

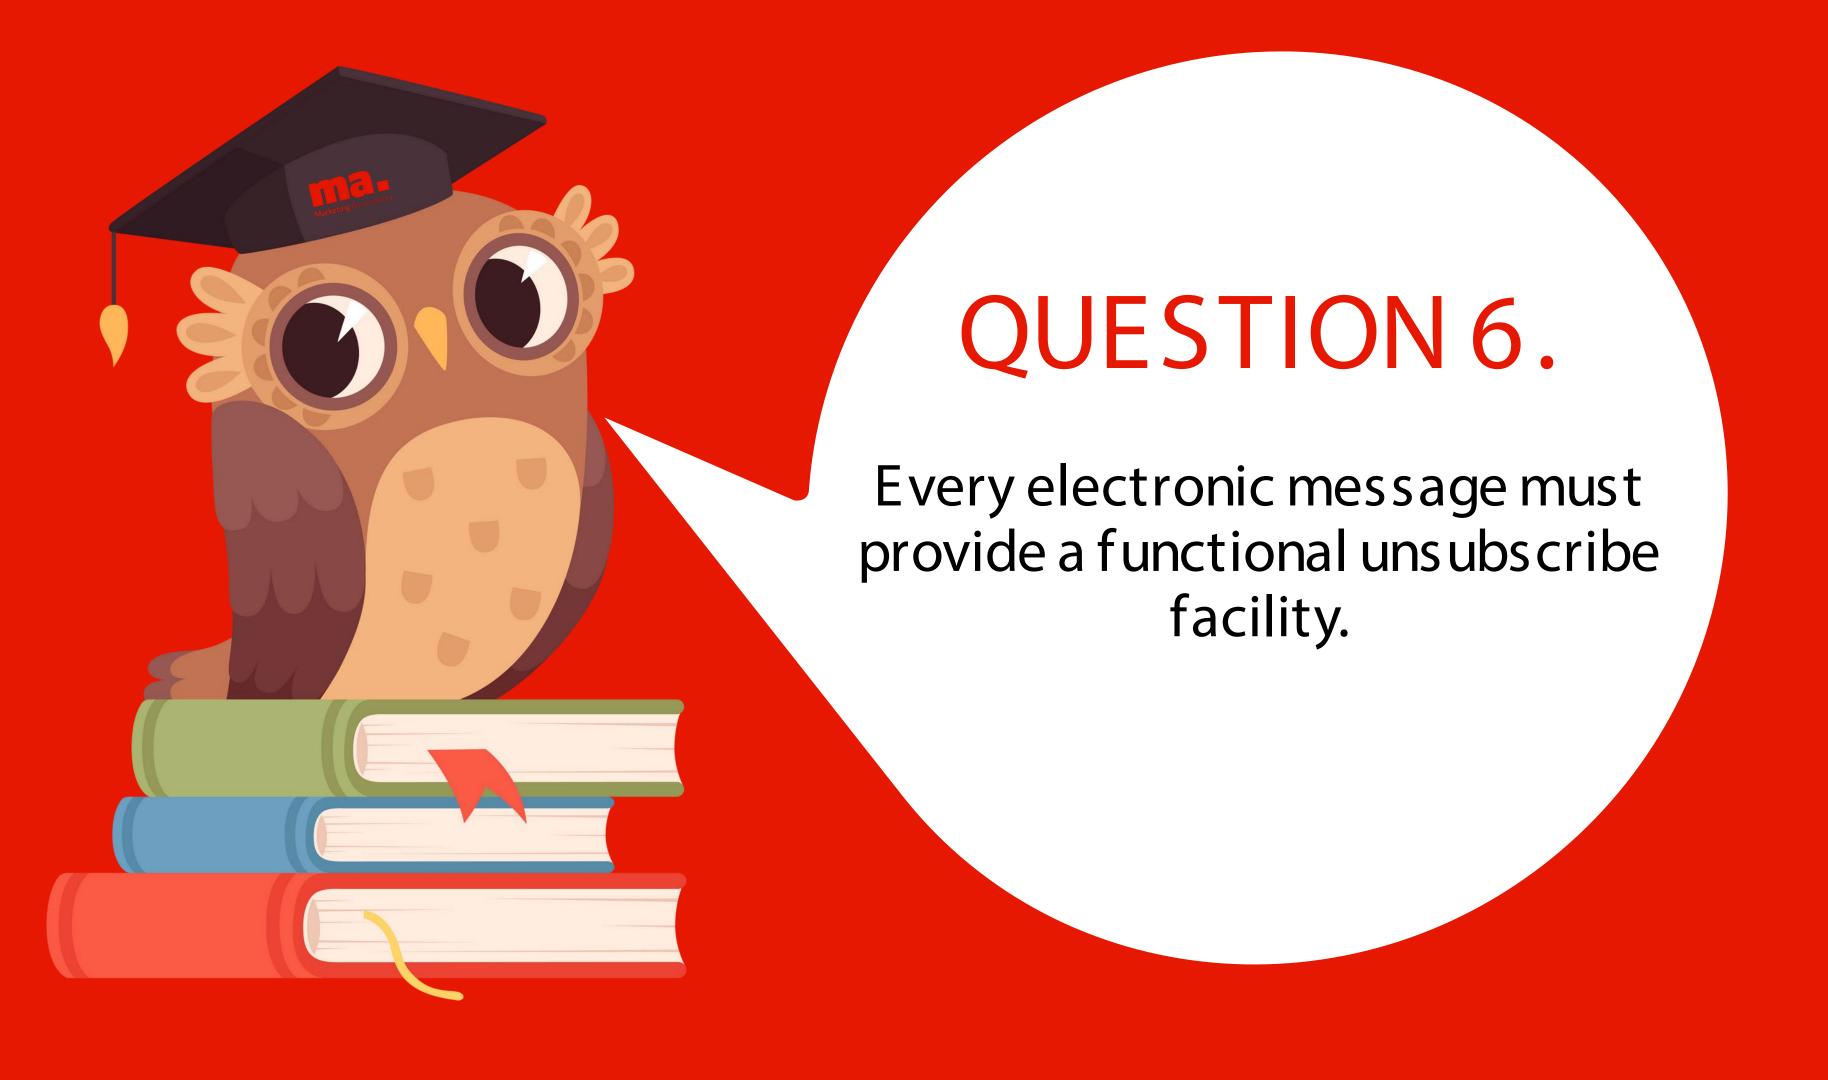

The Privacy Act does not apply to a business or organisation. However, it does apply to personal information about identifiable employees.

True

Only unsolicited commercial or promotional messages are required to have an unsubscribe mechanism. Transactional emails are excluded from the Anti-spam (UEM) Act.

False

Although it is best practise to have consent before you send unsolicited marketing mail it is not required in law. Don't forget Principle 3 of the Privacy Act requires that you tell people how you will use their personal information at the time you collect it.

False

You have our permission!
